

About Lewer Canada

For over 40 years, Lewer Canada has served as an advocate for independent business owners in the automotive and petroleum industries by providing a portfolio of employee benefits strategies, retirement and financial guidance, and third party benefit administration.

We offer a concierge approach to employee benefits and financial wellness because we're committed to improving the lives of business owners and their employees. We provide all of our clients with tailored benefits strategies designed to create healthier businesses, families, and individuals.

Lewer Canada is enthusiastically endorsed by Uni-Select, and we strive to be the extraordinary choice for members and their affiliated installers seeking affordable benefits solutions.
